Please initial & check this box to indicate you have read and agree to the following refund policy.

Minimum and maximum participation is required for conference and individual workshops. If a workshop does not reach minimum participation or is full at the time of your registration, you will be first offered a spot in another workshop. If that is not an option, the full registration fee paid will be refunded. If you choose to cancel your registration with written notice before October 15, 2018, your registration fee, less a $50 processing fee, will be refunded or credited toward a future workshop. If you choose to cancel your registration with written notice after October 15, 2018 or are a "no show" for the classes your registration fee will not be refunded.
